

Gutless Congress Offers to Shirk Their Constitutional Duty and Takes
The United States Of America
To The Edge of Oblivion
by Offering to Give Power Of the Purse To The President and a
EXECUTIVE DICTATORSHIP

A great article by Paul Joseph Watson, writer for Prison Planet.com, states that “Senate Minority Leader Mitch McConnell (R-KY) is suggesting Congress give up its power to raise the debt ceiling, and instead transfer that authority – and the political pain that comes with it – to the White House for the remainder of Obama’s current term”, reports the Huffington Post. And it further states that the “Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid has said he will seriously consider the proposal”.

How can an elected official, a Congressman of the United States of America no less, even speak such trash or even say that he will consider such unconstitutional garbage? This indicates to me that our congress has no idea of the content of our constitution or regard for the citizens of this country. These people are incompetent and should be recalled immediately before they throw away our country to the criminal bankers and their slithery minions. These cowardly acts by our elected officials create guilt by association.

If the power of the purse be transferred to the president from the Congress for any reason, it establishes a dictatorship from which the president shall never relinquish the power which effectively ends The Republic. These gutless wonders are about to betray the citizens of our beloved country, destroy The Republic and if they commit this unconstitutional act, deserve to be tried for High Treason. Read the duties of the congress and judge for yourself.

Article 1

Section 8 The Congress shall have Power To lay and collect Taxes, Duties, Imposts and Excises, to pay the Debts and provide for the common Defence and general Welfare of the United States; but all Duties, Imposts and Excises shall be uniform throughout the United States;

To borrow Money on the credit of the United States;

To regulate Commerce with foreign Nations, and among the several States, and with the Indian Tribes;
To establish an uniform Rule of Naturalization, and uniform Laws on the subject of Bankruptcies throughout the United States;
To coin Money, regulate the Value thereof, and of foreign Coin, and fix the Standard of Weights and Measures;
To provide for the Punishment of counterfeiting the Securities and current Coin of the United States;
To establish Post Offices and post Roads;
To promote the Progress of Science and useful Arts, by securing for limited Times to Authors and Inventors the exclusive Right to their respective Writings and Discoveries;
To constitute Tribunals inferior to the supreme Court;
To define and punish Piracies and Felonies committed on the high Seas, and Offenses against the Law of Nations;
To declare War, grant Letters of Marque and Reprisal, and make Rules concerning Captures on Land and Water;
To raise and support Armies, but no Appropriation of Money to that Use shall be for a longer Term than two Years;
To provide and maintain a Navy;
To make Rules for the Government and Regulation of the land and naval Forces;
To provide for calling forth the Militia to execute the Laws of the Union, suppress Insurrections and repel Invasions;
To provide for organizing, arming, and disciplining, the Militia, and for governing such Part of them as may be employed in the Service of the United States, reserving to the States respectively, the Appointment of the Officers, and the Authority of training the Militia according to the discipline prescribed by Congress;
To exercise exclusive Legislation in all Cases whatsoever, over such District (not exceeding ten Miles square) as may, by Cession of particular States, and the Acceptance of Congress, become the Seat of the Government of the United States, and to exercise like Authority over all Places purchased by the Consent of the Legislature of the State in which the Same shall be, for the Erection of Forts, Magazines, Arsenals, dock-Yards and other needful Buildings;
And To make all Laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into Execution the foregoing Powers, and all other Powers vested by this Constitution in the Government of the United States, or in any Department or Officer thereof.

Aren't the responsibilities and duties of Congress spelled out in the above text? Congress bailed these bankers, wall street thieves out and now they want us to pay for their mistakes.
