

World Bankers Guilty Of Crimes against Humanity

By EarthWalker

Each nation in the world should declare total sovereignty and arrest the world bankers that are shaking them down. Put them all in prison and seize their stolen assets. These assets should be returned to their rightful owners to balance the economy and free up the monetary system to promote growth.

The world bankers have purposefully set the stage so the nations who have borrowed money at what seemed to be initially good rates are now in dyer straights because of the overt activities of the criminal bankers who keep changing the rules. The rules were stacked against the borrower from the beginning and just as any loan shark would do, they waited until the world economy shifted into doom and gloom, to squeeze the countries into poverty. Ah, the beauty of legalized loan sharking... isn't it wonderful.

The bankers get people hooked on consuming massive amounts of unneeded items and debt by brainwashing the willing and then slam them into poverty thus justifying the theft of their property. This is not only done on an individual level but now at national levels.

When are these countries going to wake up and jail these criminals? These criminal bankers are crooks and need to be arrested. Why aren't they arrested? They commit genocide on a daily basis by starving entire nations. These criminals fund all sides of wars and make huge obscene profits while kicking massive amounts of people and no one does anything.... Why is that?

There is no need for a world court... these bankers live in some country and are subject to the laws of that country.... Are these countries so corrupt that they cannot arrest the real criminals who swindle the masses out of their life savings, their property and force people to live in squalor? Are these not criminal acts, this intentional manipulation of money so that entire cultures are decimated?

Tell me why this criminal behavior is allowed to continue! Where are these brave lawyers, learned men and women who profess such expertise and these powerful law enforcers who protect the people when we need them? Are they owned by the bankers too? Is there not one in each of these oppressed countries who will do the right thing and arrest, prosecute and convict these barbarian bankers for crimes against humanity?

1. Create and print your own money backed by whatever you want
2. Arrest the bankers and try them for crimes against humanity
3. Take back your country by eliminating the world banking system
4. You do not owe them anything because they have been raping you as long as you have done business with them

It is Time to collect your interest.
